

SOUTH SEATTLE COLLEGE ART GALLERY

The Growing Visibility of Asian Americans and Pacific Islanders: The Legacy of the AANAPISI Designation

Day of the Malu by Jewel Castro

South Seattle College
Art Gallery

(Haggan) Turtle by Roldy Aguero Ablao

Tuesday, Sept. 29 - Monday, Nov. 2, 2015

Reception: Tuesday, Oct. 6, 5pm - 7pm

Guest Curator: Rochelle Fonoti, Ph.D.

Participants: South Seattle College AANAPISI Center and Club Center; University of Washington Office of Minority Affairs & Diversity, The Burke Museum; artists Roldy Aguero Ablao and Jewel Castro.

Gallery Hours: 10am-4pm, Monday - Friday (Hours subject to change)

Location: Jerry Brockey Student Center

South Seattle College, 6000 16th Ave SW, Seattle, WA 98106

Information: Akiko Masker, Art Gallery Coordinator

Email: Akiko.Masker@seattlecolleges.edu

Phone: 206.934.5337 • Website: southseattle.edu/art-gallery

Admission is always free and open to the public!

W OFFICE OF MINORITY AFFAIRS & DIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

UW No Longer Invisible: In Their Own Words.

SOUTH SEATTLE COLLEGE
One of the Seattle Colleges